

Jacob Connor

Jacob Connor serves as the 2016-2017 “Advanced” Public Lands Transportation Scholar with the US Fish and Wildlife Service (FWS) Headquarters Office in Arlington, VA. Previously, Jacob served as a transportation scholar for the San Diego National Wildlife Complex in 2014-2015. Jacob is a recent graduate of the University of Illinois at Chicago with a Master’s in urban planning and policy. He also has a Bachelor of Science in economics from Northeastern University. The scholars program marries Jacob’s passion for preserving the natural environment with my career aspirations in alternative transportation. As a current bicycle and transit commuter, he hopes to help people transition into cleaner, healthier alternative modes of transportation.